Charlie Currier, one of our parishioners, will be talking for a minute or two after Mass today to tell us about the daily sponsored outdoor swim she's doing throughout July to raise money for Youth 2000, a Catholic charity that runs events and formation for young people to encounter and have a relationship with Jesus Christ.

Bishop Ralph Heskett and the Trustees are seeking to appoint a full time Director of Education to continue to promote high quality, authentically Catholic education. The successful candidate will support all schools of the diocese, whilst delivering the strategic vision to create two Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts in Hallam. For more detail please contact schools@hallam-diocese.com. The closing date is Thursday 31st July.

Live streaming masses: You will be aware by now (from notices in the bulletin and/or announcements at mass) that we now have a camera installed in church so that Sunday masses and weekday masses can be livestreamed. This is so those from our parish who are housebound can see and take part in the masses; but it also enables others, from our parish and beyond, to participate in our masses on a regular or occasional basis. In order to access our streamed masses click on the following link which is also on the website:
<https://share.google/1VklFQWLvgJ18fBsw>

This has been happening for about 2 weeks now, and there has already been some positive reactions. We are still on a learning curve.

The two Sunday masses will also be recorded. These will be available to view for 3-4 weeks afterwards (the weekday masses are purely livestreamed).

The camera is focussed on the sanctuary. It does mean that readers and communion ministers are visible/heard on the livestream and recording. I just wanted to ensure that everyone is aware of this.

Notices are up in the church to notify everyone that filming and recording is taking place.

Dominic

Amy Robertson R.I.P.

It is with deep sadness that we announce the untimely death of Amy Robertson at such a young age of 24 which was a shock to her family, her many friends and indeed all those who knew her. Before she moved to London, during her childhood and teenage years she was a familiar and prized member of this parish community. Amy was involved in the choir, serving mass and the Pantomime. She also attended St Marie's school. On behalf of the Parish I extend deepest sympathy to her Mum and Dad, Christine and Stephen and Matthew her brother. May they be comforted in their distress at this time of testing and pain?

Amy, rest in peace – our prayers go with you.

(Funeral arrangements at St Vincent's will be announced in due course)

Parish Live Simply Pledge for July:

I will buy less single use plastics – packaging, cutlery, disposable items etc.
