Holy Communion: (receiving the chalice)
Judging by the small show of hands last Sunday at the 9.30am mass it seems a non-issue for most people, which is fine. At the evening mass a sizeable majority wanted to remain with the status quo. Chatting to the University chaplain recently, he said that practically all the major parishes in the Diocese, including the cathedral haven't gone back to the chalice. Same applies to the Mission Hub. We'll follow suit. But the people can take comfort from the fact that they receive the full Body and Blood of Christ with nothing lacking when receiving the host (consecrated bread) on its own. Thanks for your co-operation.

Youth: Dates for your diary: the Mission Hub is having a Marian procession on 12th May at 6pm which families are welcome to attend together. The diocese are also starting a Marian Youth Group (1st meeting on 18th May) and organising a Jubilee of Youth trip to Rome in summer 2025. For both these see posters in the Narthex.
