DATA PROTECTION CONSENT FORM

COUPLES WISHING TO MARRY ABROAD

The General Data Protection Act 2018 states that personal data should not be transferred outside the European Economic Area (E.E.A) without adequate protection.

Occasionally we will be required to send data for such a marriage to take place in parts of the world outside the E.E.A.

In these cases the minimum amount of personal data to fulfil the requirements of the marriage will be sent by whichever method is most suitable. Care will be taken to ensure the most suitable method is used.

- Tracked, signed for Recorded International Delivery
- Password protected attachment to email (if available and appropriate)
- Courier
