

Catholic men's society

The Catholic Men's Society, established in 1854, is the oldest Catholic lay sodality in Great Britain.

The object of the Society is the continual formation of its members spiritually, so that each may better fulfil his Christian vocation within the parish and the world.

The aim is to be achieved through regular meetings and four special works or 'promotions': the Mass, planned study discussions, retreats and community service.

Contacts

Hugh Finnigan - hughfinnigan@googlemail.com 0114 234 1232

Ian Easton - ian.easton44@icloud.com 0114 242 6673

For information on National Retreats, Pilgrimages and Conferences;

John Smartt - john.smartt45@gmail.com. 07711 148907